A dynamic report analyzing the Industrial & Security imaging market from a regional and product perspective.

This is the second edition of the Omdia report on the industrial and security imaging market.

This report provides in-depth global coverage of the industrial and security X-ray detector market in 12 key regions, to assist in strategic decision making. Market size estimates are provided in terms of sales revenue and unit shipments, alongside average selling price, using a base year of 2020 with a 5-year forecast. Further analysis is provided for the industrial and security applications, with industrial segmentations by Aerospace & Defense, Automotive, Construction, Electronics & Semiconductors, Explosive Ordnance Disposal & Improvised Explosive Device, Heavy Industries, Manufacturing, Marine, Oil & Gas, Power & Energy, Transportation Infrastructure, Food & Drugs, and Others. The products are split by energy type (Low, Medium and High), panel technology type (Static vs Dynamic or Line scan and TDI), and by technology and energy type. Computed radiography and line sensor technologies have also been added as part of the new edition. Regional competitive analysis for the global industrial and security detector market is provided.

The report provides a clear and concise outlook on the market, giving vendors and other industry stakeholders crucial insight into the opportunities and dynamics of the market over the forecast period.
