HOW OMDIA HELPS YOU

- The tracker provides the most detailed and comprehensive supply chain data for LCD monitors, using actual shipment data by size.
- The report uniquely conveys the relationships between suppliers and brands, by panel size information and OEM volumes. Suppliers can determine market share and benchmark against competitors. Buyers can identify and evaluate key panel makers or OEMs to improve their purchasing decisions. Excel data tables enable views of various combinations of panel maker, OEM, brand, panel size, and time period.

KEY QUESTIONS ADDRESSED

- Evaluate competition in the LCD monitor industry, strategic alliances, and panel production
- Determine which monitor OEM makers are capable and selected to work with LCD monitor brands
- Learn relevant supply chain dynamics of who-produces-what-for-whom
- Determine availability of new LCD monitor sizes by supplier
- Mitigate risk by understanding how diversified your suppliers and your competitors' suppliers are
- Identify negotiation leverage by panel makers and suppliers based on growth or decline in their customers or shipments
